Search Notes

Dear Examiner Swartz:

Please find attached the results of your search for the above-referenced case. The search was conducted in the template files.

I have listed references of potential interest in the first part of the search results. However, please be sure to scan through the entire report. There may be additional references that you might find useful.

If you have any questions about the search, or need a refocus, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you for using the EIC, and we look forward to your next search!

... DBAs to specify that data frequently queried together be stored physically close together. In addition, key columns duplicated in tables that are frequently accessed together (such as ORDER NO in order-entry header and detail tables) can be clustered to reduce storage space requirements. Clustering is transparent to...

...and CREATE INDEX commands indicate which physical storage and sequencing approaches can be used in order to optimize performance.

In addition to maximizing performance of physical-access parameters, logical queries can...
